COME AND SEE US.

HEADQUARTERS REP. STATE CENTRAL COM.,
MILWAUKEE, JUNE 15, 1884.

The Republican State Central Committee has opened convention and committee headquarters on Wisconsin street, near the post-office, in Milwaukee. All republicans, and especially those of our own state, are cordially invited to call upon them. The committee is now in session, and many of the leading journals of the country, will be kept on file. Come and see us.

H. A. TAYLOR, CHM.
C. FAYNE, SEC.

This campaign is like the battle of a jug—all on our side.

The size of the November vote will be about ten millions and a half.

Look out for another earthquake when

Cleveland's lot or strikes the telegraph wires.

The earthquake is New York was temporarily blessing to the democrats.

It gave them something else to talk about than the campaign.

The republican policy has been tested for twenty-four years and has never been found wanting; and the people will endorse it again this year.

The democrats are anxious to know what Butler is running for. The country has not yet been able to ascertain what Cleveland is running for.

General Dan Sickles asks: "How can any democrat become enthusiastic over

Cleveland?" The general will never get an answer from the democratic party.

Now that the democrats "are done

for," they are anxious to know what the campaign was begun for. That ques-has puzzled them a good many times.

The cholera is not spreading in France

to any extent. It is increasing in Italy

somewhat, but its ravages are not alarming. The worst is over for this year.

It Cleveland could cover up his moral record and Blaine could hide his war

record, just for the campaign, the democratic party would be reasonably happy.

The independents, in view of the damaging charges against Mr. Cleveland, want written over the portals of the white house, "Let him that is without sin cast the first stone."

Billy McGlory, the convict, was liberated from Sing Sing on Monday, which made one gain for Cleveland on New York. But this is neutralized in Missou-rius by John G. Whittier coming out boldly for Blaine.

The democrats had all the ills they could bear before, but now that Butler

is tamping about in Democratic cornfields, they are more discouraged than ever. He is doing a good deal of mischief in treading out the democratic votes.

The body of General James Shields,

the hero of two wars and a senator from three states, who in life received the freedom of cities and honors from commonwealth, lies in an unmarked grave in a neglected burying ground two miles outside of Oshtemo, Mo.

It was a very neat complaint that

Roscoe Conkling paid James G. Blaine

the other day: "Mr. Blaine is tainted, but he is tainted from head to foot with republicanism. He has been at the front in every fight which republicans have been obliged to wage for the last twenty years."

Will the independents and the demom-crats please inform the country who has changed since 1860? Then the independents said the democratic party was party for plunder and spoils, and the democrats said the independents were representatives of all that was bad in the republican party. Will some one please rise and explain?

The report has gone out that the national democratic committee will meet in

A well informed democratic politician and editor living in New Jersey, has caught the sentiment that floats in the air, and makes this statement: "As to election, Cleveland is a dead community. I think. We have no 'barrel,' no unity, no enthusiasm for the man. He is of a terribly small and mean pattern, and he ought to be beaten. I had a long talk with Governor Abbott, of this state, the other day, and he thinks as I do. Abbott fought for Bayard at Chicago. The campaign will be a sick one all through. I think, and I fear Cleveland will not even get New Jersey. He will lose New York by 50,000 and I'll bet on it."

A lawyer in New York, whom the New York Sun calls a veteran member of the bar, writes to that democratic journal stating that if he were conducting the campaign against Cleveland he would make more out of his being a humbug. Then he asks this pertinent question: "What sort of a man is it that chooses to be a humbug? For a lawyer, of a respectable law firm, doing a living business even, to desert that high and honorable profession for the purpose of being a public executioner, whatever the temptation of the emoluments of that office, is a wonder. It is a virtue when a man is a bootblack to have him black boots well. But when a member of the bar, of full age and strength, quits his profession to be a bootblack there must be something wrong in his instincts, or his capacity of reasoning."

The experiences of the democratic candidates for president, have been confidentially given to each other:

GENERAL McCLELLAN.—Trying to make the people believe that the war was a failure brought me to this political death.

HONORABLE SUMNER.—I was made a candidate against my will—upon a platform which favored free trade, the blighting of the government credit, and denouncing reconstruction; and here I am retired to the shades of private life forever.

SAMUEL J. TILDEN.—(In a whisper.) What a fool I was. I said a tariff for revenue only, that protection was robbery, that the wolf was at the door, and that the republican party was a fraud; and I bow to the will of God in deeming my whole life forever lost. Beware of ciphers.

GENERAL HANCOCK.—I was said to be a good man and weighed 850 pounds, which was an improvement on 1876; but I said the tariff was a local issue, and the party made me stand on a platform of tariff for revenue only. Then Chairman Barnum hired the Morry letter forged and also contracted that "1892" be written on the sidewalks and the fences, and now among the democratic martyrs I am placed.

GROVER CLEVELAND.—I find the road to the presidency a very hard one to travel. The independents wanted me but the democrats really didn't. The former wanted the moral issue to stand first, and the democrats wanted the tariff. The moral issue was buried in a week after my nomination, and the tariff plank is a dead give-away and a miserable failure. The democrats are deserting me by thousands and the independents are making my chances more gloomy than ever. There is no hope that I can carry a single northern state.

THE WHEAT CROP.

It has heretofore been stated in the columns of the Gazette that the wheat crop of the country would be about 450,000,000 bushels. This estimate will not fall far short of the actual yield as the harvest has sufficiently advanced in all sections of the country to enable the statisticians of the department of agriculture to make very accurate estimates.

A circular from the bureau of agriculture says this yield would make the crop the third largest in our history, but that if we take into account the increase in population, it is relatively 50,000,000 bushels short of 1882, and half this below the crop of 1882. As it is grown on a larger acreage, it has cost more to raise than either of these crops, and the increase of population makes the surplus for export smaller. While, therefore, above the average, it will be less valuable, will sell for less and furnish less for foreign sale than the crops which brought booms. The effect will be chiefly felt in Kansas, Wisconsin, Minnesota and Dakota. The large surplus of the last crop makes the amount which can be exported 200,000,000 bushels. Of this, one-fifth, possibly one-fourth, will leave the Pacific coast. This leaves possible exports over the Atlantic coast of 150,000,000 bushels. In 1882-3 they were about two-thirds that and in 1880-1 reached this figure. Good crops abroad, however, reduce the demands of Europe. No accurate figures can be given, but it looks as if the exporting countries were going to have close to 400,000,000 to fill a deficiency of 300,000,000 bushels in Europe."

PROTECTION AND WAGES.

The influence of protection upon wages can not be better illustrated than by taking the following comparison of wages paid in a woolen mill at Aberdeen, Scotland, and the average wages paid in the mills in New York. The statement of the wages in Aberdeen was furnished by a person belonging to the mills at that place, and that regarding New York, was furnished by Mr. E. A. Hartman, an extensive manufacturer of Troy.

The prices paid in February last were as follows:

New York.	Scotland.
Wool sorters—Overseer, $18.00	$7.50
Men, 12.00	5.50
Dyers—Men, 7.00	3.50
Cleaning—Overseer, 20.00	10.00
Carders—Men, 10.00	5.00
Shedding—Overseer, 15.00	7.50
Men, 12.00	5.00
Washing—Overseer, 18.00	9.00
Men, 12.00	5.00
Children—$2.50 to 4.00	1.00
Section hands, 12.00	5.00
Woolers, 10.00	5.00
Finishing—Overseer, 15.00	7.50
Men, 12.00	5.00
Freemen, 10.00	5.00
Gargers and fullers, 10.00	5.00

Another comparison of wages in America and Scotland, is furnished by ex-Governor Cheney, of New Hampshire, who has done considerable traveling in Scotland. He has studied the subject thoroughly and makes the following comparisons:

America.	Scotland.
Machinists—Overseer, $10.00	$5.00
Men, 7.00	3.50
Other help, 5.00	2.50

This question has an important bearing in this campaign. The policy of the democratic party by its free trade theories is to turn down American wages. It can't be otherwise, because the history of democratic free-trade is the history of the breaking down of wages and the ruin of American industries, and now as in times past, history will repeat itself. Every workman should study the comparisons here given, and he will then conclude that he ought not to vote to reduce American wages to the low standard of European wages.

THE ARCTIC TRAGEDY.

Lieut. Greely Gives the Story of Henry's Execution.

Caught Stealing the Rations, He Was Shot to Save Others—The Alleged Cannibals—Another Times Sensation.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Aug. 14.—Lieut. Greely was seen by a reporter in his cottage on Newby's island. Being asked what truth there was in the article published in The New York Times, he gave an account of the various events of the latter part of the retreat southward from Fort Conger. About Nov. 1 the party began to be served with one-quarter rations, and debilitated health soon showed the effect of this insufficient ration. The men were not before long in a physical condition to withstand Arctic weather as they had been a year before.

About November 1 provisions were missed from the stores, and it was concluded that they must have been stolen. Much complaint was made by the men and the arrests against the thief were made. On Dec. 24 the party was near perishing from asphyxia, and several of its members were unconscious. Private Henry, during this terrible experience, was one of the most faithful.

Henry was taken ill from over-eating his stomach, and vomited up the last of his strength. An investigation was held, and it was proved that he had stolen the rations. He was taken to the shore and shot to save the others.
